PRESS RELEASE

AT Conference Completes Acquisition of EnterConference

EnterConference purchase marks AT Conference's fourth acquisition in four years.

NEW YORK, January 12, 2012 - AT Conference, Inc., a leading provider of conference call services and web conferencing, today announced it has completed the acquisition of Montgomery, Alabama-based conferencing services provider EnterConference.

The EnterConference transaction is the fourth acquisition in the past four years for AT Conference, following its previous acquisitions of Tiger Communications, A Professional Conference Call and the conferencing division of Mix Meeting.

EnterConference clients now join the more than 100,000 active users of AT Conference's secure and reliable audio and web conferencing services and its extensive suite of cloud-based and other tools that include ManageYourCall online call management, ManageYourConferencing online account management, detailed usage reporting, electronic billing and payments, flexible billing code assignment and Outlook® scheduling integration.

AT Conference's CEO, David Jannetti, credits company emphasis on delivering reliability, rolling out new service enhancements and its outstanding customer service with the successful completion of its acquisitions. Jannetti said, "Our customer service team has been an integral part in the account migration process, demonstrating to new clients the exceptional level of care and support they will receive from AT Conference as they transition to our services.

"We've added a number of new tools that give our users the most efficient and reliable conferencing experience available. I am confident that EnterConference clients will enjoy the recent service enhancements and the outstanding customer service we pride ourselves in."

The financial details of the EnterConference acquisition were not disclosed.
