AT Conference Acquires Tiger Communications: A Winning Combination For Customers

The acquisition of another conferencing provider by AT Conference extends their winning suite of audio and web conferencing services to more customers nationwide.

Southampton, NY, October 26, 2007 -- AT Conference, Inc., a leading provider of audio and web conferencing services, today announced it has completed the acquisition of Redondo Beach, California-based Tiger Communications.

AT Conference is one of the fastest growing private companies in the United States as measured by Inc. Magazine and Deloitte & Touche. AT Conference was also ranked New York's 28th fastest growing company in Deloitte's 'Technology Fast 50' program in 2006.

"I'm excited to welcome Tiger Communication customers to AT Conference. The Tiger Communications acquisition reinforces our commitment to growth in the SMB sector," said David Jannetti, Founder and CEO of AT Conference. "Our attentive customer support team and expanding suite of services provide Tiger customers a winning combination. Tiger customers will also enjoy our expanding international conferencing capabilities and large operator-assisted event services."
